American Red Cross and Victory Junction Beneficiaries of $750,000

Sprint & Corporate Partners Raise Funds for Charity

HUNTERSVILLE, N.C. - May 21, 2008 - Sprint (NYSE:S) played host to corporate leaders from across the country May 19 at the famed Pinehurst golf resort, located in the sand hills of North Carolina, for the Sprint All-Star Charity Golf Classic and raised $750,000 to be split equally between the American Red Cross and the Victory Junction Gang Camp.

Affiliated Computer Services, Ditech Networks, Ericsson, Motorola, Nokia/Nokia Siemens Networks and Gemalto served as platinum-level sponsors, the highest level of sponsorship at the tournament. An additional 32 companies sponsored the event at various levels.

The best-ball format featured two groups on Pinehurst's prestigious Course No. 2 and No. 4, site of the 2008 U.S. Men's Amateur Championship. Scott Kreitzman, Robbie Brillhart and Darren Swanson won the competition on Course No. 2. Chad Willis, Billy Race, Lance Brown and Jeff Hackmann won the round on Course No. 4.

About the American Red Cross

The American Red Cross shelters, feeds and counsels victims of disasters; provides nearly half of the nation's blood supply; teaches lifesaving skills; and supports military members and their families. The Red Cross is a charitable organization - not a government agency - and depends on volunteers and the generosity of the American public to perform its humanitarian mission. ### About Victory Junction Gang Camp

The mission of the Victory Junction Gang Camp is to enrich the lives of children with chronic medical conditions or serious illnesses by providing life-changing camping experiences that are exciting, fun, and empowering, in a safe and medically sound environment. Founded by NASCAR driver Kyle Petty and his wife Pattie in honor of their late son Adam, the Victory Junction Gang Camp is a year-round facility serving children, age 7 to 15. Each summer, children suffering from similar medical conditions including heart, lung and kidney disease, spina bifida, HIV, cancer, burn survivors, neurological disorders, and a host of others, gather to kick back, relax and have some fun. The camp offers traditional activities, including horseback riding, boating and fishing, arts and crafts and others, as well as NASCAR related program areas. The Victory Junction Gang Camp is a member of the Association of Hole in the Wall Gang Camps and is free to children and their families. The camp operates solely on the generous donations of individuals, corporations and foundation. For more information, visit www.victoryjunction.org.
