FEBRUARY 2024

Latest from Youth Leaders

Embrace diversity, equity and inclusion this February with the Red Cross! At the heart of our mission, DEI is seamlessly woven into every aspect of our service lines. This month provides a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the uniqueness of each individual and reaffirm our commitment to fostering an inclusive environment.

Take the lead in championing diversity by participating in the Youth Diversity Pledge. This initiative empowers volunteers to become advocates and leaders within the American Red Cross. Through education on diversity and inclusion within our

Youth Spotlight: Aashirya Murugan

Aashirya, a high school student and volunteer

Aashirya embarked on her journey with the Red Cross during her freshman year of high school. Aashirya grew up hearing stories of the American Red Cross through her father, who would donate blood yearly, about the organization, you can initiate meaningful discussions about individual uniqueness and the diverse challenges we face.

The 2024-2026 HBCU Ambassador program is accepting applications until February 29, 2024. Through the HBCU ambassador program, you can help to inspire a new generation of Red Cross volunteers and leaders, promote diversity of Red Cross Blood Services regions' donor recruitment, and improve health outcomes of diverse populations in need of blood transfusions. As we approach Red Cross Month in March, the National Youth Council is offering various live events throughout March to involve youth and young adult volunteers within our variety of service opportunities. Originally created in 1943, Red Cross Month is a time to celebrate the accomplishments of youth volunteerism and reflect upon our organization's mission. Stay tuned for more information on how to join these sessions and gain access to unique volunteer experiences that will empower you to make a meaningful difference in your community and beyond!

Your active participation will help us build a more inclusive and supportive community within the Red Cross. Let's work together to make a positive impact!

mission of this organization and its dedication to serving humanity.

Aashirya has conducted emergency drills at her elementary school to train K-5 students in emergency preparedness with events such as fires and earthquakes. As a sophomore and junior, she was selected to become the Spirit and Publicity Coordinator and Committee Member for her region, East Bay Youth Executive Board, being a founding member of the Barton Tribune, a platform to make the newsletter more accessible to volunteers for regional updates.

She currently serves as the International Services Coordinator for the East Bay Youth Executive Board, where she leads a team which helps educate the public on International Humanitarian Law, policy and health. Aashirya thanks the Red Cross for changing her life and opening so many opportunities and paths for her.

Celebrate Lunar New Year

Lunar New Year is a time to gather with loved ones, honor ancestors, exchange gifts, feast, and of course, wish for abundance, prosperity, longevity, and happiness in the coming year. Lunar New Year is celebrated by millions of people around the world, including China, Hong Kong, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Mongolia, Singapore, Taiwan, Vietnam, and more!

This Lunar New Year begins February 10 as we welcome the year of the dragon! The dragon represents good luck, justice, wisdom and strength. Learn more about Lunar New Year on OneSource.

Visit our monthly Celebrate and Engage page here to learn more ways to learn about the history, current movement activities and the different ways to support individuals fighting for this initiative.

Expand Your Knowledge

In honor of American Heart Month this February, you can sign up for various Red Cross courses, including Basic Life Support and First Aid/AED. Engaging in these courses allows you to gain knowledge in handling such situations and develop the problem-solving skills needed to help those around you. Check out this page to learn about the variety of classes and training you can participate in.

February Monthly Focus: Black History Month

Celebrate Black History Month with the Red Cross as we honor the rich tapestry of African American contributions that have shaped our nation. This February, the Red Cross pays tribute to the resilience, achievements, and cultural impact of Black individuals throughout history. Join us in recognizing the trailblazers who have left an indelible mark on society and continue to inspire positive change. Let us unite in fostering understanding, equality, and inclusivity, embodying the spirit of compassion that defines the Red Cross. Together, we honor the past, celebrate the present, and build a future where diversity is embraced and celebrated. The American Red Cross has planned many events to celebrate Black History Month, check out this One Source page for more details.

February Highlight: Navin Narayan Scholarship

As we enter February, the application for the Navin Narayan Scholarship will soon open! Both a Rhodes Scholar and a Harvard graduate, Navin Narayan was a high-achieving student as well as a compassionate, dedicated and innovative American Red Cross volunteer. Tragically, Navin succumbed to cancer at 23.

For the past 21 years, the National Youth Council has continued his legacy of volunteerism and academic excellence by awarding the Navin Narayan Scholarship to a high school senior who embodies his principles. This scholarship is a one-time award of $1,000 paid directly to one recipient upon proof of matriculation. Visit this page to learn more about the scholarship and the eligibility requirements.
